Headline:
Mostly settled this week, warm by day with little rain.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine and dry evening and night, with light winds and prolonged clear spells allowing mist and fog patches to develop in rural river valley around dawn. Turning quite chilly in rural areas, especially Hampshire. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
Mist and fog patches soon clearing inland, though possibly persisting until late morning near the Kent and East Sussex coast. Remaining dry and warm with long periods of sunshine. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Remaining warm and largely dry through this period. Cloudier than previous days, especially in the west and near the south coast, but some good amounts of sunshine in the afternoon.
